

NIAS cast enact Brecht's Galileo

Bangalore, June 29: What happens when science and religion blend? The result is an impressive theatrical performance.

As part of a course on 'Understanding Science,' the National Institute of Advanced Studies put up a performance of Bertolt Brecht's Galileo on Friday.

The cast turned out a rivetting performance, with the 'staged reading' format, a release said.

The complex theme of the dynamics between science, religion and society was brought home to the audience with some stunning diction and delivery. • ENS
